

WILLIAMSPORT BUREAU OF POLICE
Williamsport, Pennsylvania
POLICE ROSTERS
1850-2003
Back-up as of 1/07/03
RESEARCHED AND COMPILED BY CAPT. JAMES G. CARN (RET.)

1806-1850

The Borough of Williamsport was policed by the duly elected constable and high constable of each ward up until 1850 when the town hired its first policeman. Unfortunately, the names of those who served to enforce the laws during this time will probably never be known as the microfilmed newspapers from this era are incomplete and sketchy.

1850

Samuel B. Coder appointed during the year 1850 as the Borough of Williamsport's first policeman. He appears to have served in this capacity until the time Williamsport was incorporated as a city in 1866. Constables continued to serve during this time and exercised full arrest powers.

1865

Policemen: Samuel B. Coder and John Marley.
Appointments: John Marley appointed in 1865. Rufus C. Swan also served as a borough policeman sometime prior to the city's incorporation.

1866
