Gates, William J., appointed July 15, 1923. Dismissed from the force May 17, 1928, by City Council after Chief Husted filed a complaint against him charging him with being intoxicated on duty on April 25, 30, and May 1. Council found him guilty of the April 30 allegation only. Died April 17, 1932, at age 53.

Gaul, Roundsman Asikiah K., DOB ?/?/1847, appointed May 1, 1880; reappointed 7/18/81 and 4/10/82. Resigned between 10/09/83 and 11/04/83. Reappointed 4/8/90 and 4/3/93. Not retained 4/6/96. Was a Civil War veteran having served in Company F, 6th PA Vol. Cavalry. Died February 12, 1931, at age 84. Badge #2.

Gaul, Charles, listed in 1881-83 and 1883-84 city directories as on the force under city government listing, but is listed as a laborer in the alphabetical listings. He is not listed in newspaper articles among those reappointed 4/10/82 or 4/02/84. Appears to be a typographical error in that Roundsman Asikiah K. Gaul is the only Gaul listed in newspapers as having been appointed to the force. Charles Gaul appears to be a son of Asikiah Gaul.

Gibson, Chief James D. (Duke), DOB 8/01/1836, appointed April 12, 1880, and resigned by the year's end. Appointed Chief April 2, 1888, and served in that capacity until April 8, 1890. Died February 13, 1908.

Giglio, Capt. Oreste, DOB 1/02/1879, Finger Print Expert, mentioned in Chief's Annual Report January 4, 1918 as being on the force, but newspaper accounts give appointment date as February 1, 1918. First Italian-American appointed to the force. Prior to joining the force he organized the local Sons of Italy. Promoted to Lieutenant July 12, 1923. Performed City Detective duties beginning April 9, 1925, when Det. Joseph Cochran resigned. On March 1, 1928 he was placed in charge of traffic. He was in charge of Identification Bureau at one point. Promoted to Captain February 21, 1930. Became seriously ill and took his own life with his service revolver on October 10, 1935.

Gilson, Agt. Robert F., DOB 07/28/1951, sworn in May 5, 1975. Assigned to the Detective Division effective March 11, 1991, as a Juvenile Officer. Promoted to Agent 4/27/92. Nephew of Sgt. Joseph A. DiBartolomeo. Badge #9; Agt. #3. Retired January 5, 2001.

Hennigan, John H., appointed April 10, 1882. Served a very short time as he was not reappointed with new force on 4/02/84. May have been John W. Henegan who was born in Ireland in 1829 and who served in Battery B, 8th PA Light Infantry in the Civil War, and who died November 29, 1904.

Henry, Scott A., DOB 5/30/1962, appointed January 21, 1986. K-9 handler; police dog named Fero. Resigned May 31, 1989, to join The Pennsylvania State Police.

Hill, Matthias M., appointed April 6, 1896, confirmed 4/20/96. Appointed as Sergeant-at-Arms for Select Council in June 1896. Last mentioned in April 1, 1899, Police Chief's annual report. Appears to have served until April 10, 1899, when new police force was sworn in. Died November 4, 1948, at age 89. Badge #5.

Hilsher, Joseph, DOB ???/1843, appointed May 28, 1868, and mentioned as an officer in June 1, 1868, June 16, 1868, and July 1, 1868, newspaper accounts. Name also appears as "Heishler," "Hilcher" and "Hishler." Joseph Hilcher, 33, is listed in the city 1870 federal census. Appears to be Joseph Hilsher, Civil War veteran who served as a Private in Co B, 76th Regiment PA Volunteer Infantry and who died June 30, 1931.

Hinkleman, George A., DOB ??/1875, appointed October 23, 1907, as a patrolman to fill the vacancy caused by the dismissal of Daniel Sweeney. Resigned five days later, October 28, 1907. Died June 15, 1958.

Hoffer, Joseph, appointed May 22, 1872. No further mention of him can be found.

Holland, William T., listed in "News of Years Ago" April 3, 1916, Gazette and Bulletin column as being on the force April 3, 1876. Not listed in any city directories as being on the force. Appears to be a typographical error as Holland was nominated April 3, 1886, but was not sworn in at a later date with the new force. Listed in newspaper as being appointed, but he was never confirmed by Councils. Appears to have never served.

Holmes, Chief John G., DOB ??/1848, born in Ireland, appointed before August 3, 1876. Dropped from the force 4/08/78. Reappointed to the force as Chief, April 12, 1880; renominated April 10, 1882, and sworn in April 11, 1882. Served until April 8, 1884, when new Chief appointed by incoming administration. Died August 11, 1896, at St. Albans, W. VA.

Holt, Jasper H., DOB 3/29/1918, appointed January 1, 1945. Resigned January 29, 1946. Moved to Howard, Pa. His sister, Mrs. Adele G. Darley, 51, was killed in a train-auto collision in Lock Haven on September 13, 1963. Holt suffered a heart attack on September 20 and died October 8, 1963, at Lock Haven. Badge #9.

Hoover, John K., sworn in April 8, 1902; did not make application to reapply when new force sworn in April 3, 1905. Served three years. Died March 19, 1947, at Picture Rocks. Badge #10.

Hoover, Michael D., DOB 09/12/1966, sworn in August 12, 1988. Brother of Pennsylvania State Police Trooper Todd K. Hoover. Son of retired Lewisburg Borough Police Officer Lee D. Hoover. Not related to Officer John K. Hoover. Involved in a police shooting June 18, 1993; (see "Shootings and Stabbings" section). Suspended for the shooting August 19 pending closed city council hearing held November 15. On December 7, 1993, city council ordered a 30-day suspension and reinstatement upon successful completion of psychological evaluation and certain police-related courses. Officer Hoover was placed on light duty working in Central Records in a non-uniformed and non-weapon carrying capacity in the interim. He was reinstated effective 3/30/94. Suspended June 15, 1998 for allegedly having committed four acts of misconduct. One was for reportedly allowing a waitress to drive a police cruiser around a restaurant parking lot and three involved his interaction with other officers conducting a speed trap on another date. Terminated by City Council vote of 5-0 July 9, 1998; on appeal was denied reinstatement by Judge William S. Keiser 3/06/99 and in January 2000 the state Superior Court affirmed the local court's decision upholding the firing. United States Army veteran. Badge #32.

Hottenstein, John P., hired in 1917 and first mentioned in January 4, 1918, report of the Chief of Police. Resigned March 3, 1918.

Hughes, Charles E., DOB ???/1859 or 1860, appointed April 8, 1890. Served until April 3, 1893, when new administration reorganized the force. Not related to Officer Thomas H. Hughes. Badge #13.

Hughes, Thomas H., DOB 5/09/1851, appointed July 23, 1885; reappointed 4/2/88, 4/09/90, 4/3/93, 4/06/96 (confirmed 4/20/96; 4/10/99, 4/08/02, and 4/03/05. On the night of September 15, 1906, Officer Hughes arrested a young man at the Arlington Dancing Academy for being drunk and disorderly. While escorting the youth to City Hall, Hughes was attacked by a mob near the court house and was severely beaten. He managed to hang on to the person under arrest until other officers came to his aid. The crowd numbered about 300. Hughes died nine days later, September 24, 1906. The coroner's jury ruled that he died as a result of an already weakened condition and not as a result of the beating. Badge #8, 1896 era; badge #1, 1901 era. (Black Officer).

Hunsinger, David W., DOB ??/1861, confirmed February 21, 1910; reappointed December 4, 1911, and sworn in December 5, 1911. He is in a 1908 police force photo, but there is no mention that he was sworn in with the new force that year, nor is he listed in city directories as being on the force that year or the following year. Elected by City Commission April 2, 1914, and sworn in April 7, 1914. Reappointed 1/03/16. Listed in the city directories 1910 through 1918 as being on the force. Resigned August 8, 1918. Died November 20, 1922.

Husted, Chief Lyman S., appointed Chief January 17, 1924, at age 65. Not previously on the force. Demoted to Sergeant effective midnight January 16, 1928. Refused to recognize council's appointment of a new Chief and refused to turn over the keys to the office and desk and pertinent papers or to give up his badge. Resigned from the force January 26 after being suspended 10 days for not showing up for duty as a Sergeant. Died at Cammal, Pa., October 25, 1929, where he is buried.

Husted, Stephen C., served as a special motorcycle officer at the end of 1925 in place of officers off injured and sick. Not a regular, full-fledged member of the department. Newspaper referred to him as the first college-educated policeman, being a graduate of Lafayette University, however Chief Evan Russell appears to hold the distinction of being the first college graduate. Service ceased on December 19, 1925. Son of Chief Lyman S. Husted.

Police Officers I

Irwin, William, appointed June 11, 1870, as Detective Policeman. Appears to be the city's first detective. Dismissed by Mayor Herdic on July 15, 1870, for neglect of duty and improper conduct.
